

1. Purpose

The purpose of this Policy is to outline the rules, criteria and procedures for the reallocation of medals, ranking points, Spirit of the Game scores, awards and prizes following the disqualification of an Athlete and Teams, in and out of Team Sports<sup>1</sup> formats, due to one (1) or multiple Anti-Doping Rule Violations (ADRV) under the WFDF Anti-Doping Rules.

This Policy ensures that clean Athletes and Teams in all Flying Disc Sports' Disciplines, including both Individual and Team Disciplines are properly and swiftly recognized in a fair and honest manner.

2. Procedures Prior to Reallocation

- 2.1. No official reallocation of medals, ranking points or prizes will occur until all policy and procedural remedies and appeals processes have been fully exhausted.
- 2.2. Disqualified Athletes or teams must return their original medals, prizes, and awards to WFDF before new medals or prizes are issued to the upgraded Athletes and Teams.
  - 2.2.1. A sanctioned individual Athlete or Team that refuses to return medals or prize funds within the designated deadline will face additional disciplinary action under the authority of the WFDF Anti-Doping Rules and other Policies.
- 2.3. All final decisions regarding reallocations and the execution of ceremonies are under the jurisdiction of the WFDF Board of Directors.

3. Reallocation Procedures by Discipline

3.1. Individual Sport Disciplines

- 3.1.1. An ADRV in an Individual Discipline automatically leads to the disqualification of the result obtained in that Competition<sup>2</sup> with subsequent implications on the Event<sup>3</sup>.
- 3.1.2. Disqualified athletes will lose their Competition result(s)/placement(s) and be officially noted in the results as disqualified (DSQ).
- 3.1.3. Athletes having finished the Competition and who initially placed lower than the disqualified Athlete(s) will move up accordingly in their placement(s).

<sup>3</sup> As defined in the Anti-Doping Rules as "a series of individual Competitions conducted together under one ruling body (e.g., World Championships)."

- 3.1.4. Any results and points contributing to other Competitions will be disqualified and subsequently re-ranked.

3.2. Team Sport Disciplines

- 3.2.1. Two (2) or more ADRVs in a Team Sport Discipline will automatically lead to the imposition of an appropriate sanction on the team (e.g., loss of points, disqualification from that Competition or Event, or other sanction) in addition to any Consequences imposed upon the individual Athlete(s).
- 3.2.2. Disqualified Teams will lose their Competition result(s)/placement(s) and be officially noted in the results as disqualified (DSQ).
- 3.2.3. Teams having finished the Competition(s) and Event and who initially placed lower than the disqualified Team(s) will move up accordingly in their placement(s).
- 3.2.4. Any results and points contributing to other Competitions will be disqualified and subsequently re-ranked.

3.3. Team Events (outside of Team Sports)

- 3.3.1. An ADRV in an individual discipline automatically leads to the disqualification of the Team result obtained in that Competition with subsequent implications on the Event.
- 3.3.2. Disqualified Teams will lose their Competition result(s)/placement(s) and be officially noted in the results as disqualified (DSQ).
- 3.3.3. Teams having finished the Competition(s) and Event and who initially placed lower than the disqualified Team(s) will move up accordingly in their placement(s).
- 3.3.4. Any results and points contributing to other Competitions will be disqualified and subsequently re-ranked.

4. Spirit of the Game Score and Ranking Reallocation Procedures

- 4.1. The Spirit Scores given and received by the disqualified Team and/or Individual(s) are disqualified and will not be used for any tally.
- 4.2. Disqualified Teams and/or Individual(s) will lose their Spirit result(s)/placement(s) and be officially noted in the results as disqualified (DSQ).
- 4.3. Teams having finished the Competition(s) and Event and who initially placed lower than the disqualified Team(s) will move up accordingly in their placement(s). The overall scores are not subsequently recalculated.
- 4.4. Any results and points contributing to other Competitions will be disqualified and subsequently re-ranked.

5. Medal Reallocation Ceremonies

To validate the achievements of clean athletes in a meaningful environment, WFDF may offer the upgraded athletes or selected team representatives an option of ceremony formats where feasible.

Once a ceremony format is determined, WFDF will coordinate with the respective Member National Federation.

6. Distribution of Forfeited Prize Money(s)

In compliance with the WFDF Anti-Doping Rules, if and when prize money is successfully recovered from a sanctioned Athlete or Team, WFDF will take reasonable measures to redistribute those funds proportionally to the Athletes or Teams who would have earned those prize money(s).
